

Market wrap

AUGUST 2017

Bouncing higher

- Global share markets rose strongly during July as political risks and fears of a hard landing in China subsided.
- US growth in the second quarter lifted and we suspect a similar outcome in Q3 given stronger lead indicators in the manufacturing sector.
- Bond yields were little changed in the month as inflation pressures remain soft although credit spreads have benefited from higher commodity prices. Australian and global fixed income returns were up as a result.
- The US dollar (USD) continued to soften against most other major currencies. The AUD rose by 4.1% on the back of higher commodity prices and the dovish outlook from the RBA. The euro broke out of its trading range and is up by 10.4% against the USD in the past 12 months.
- Emerging market shares and bonds rose in the month following stronger Chinese growth and infrastructure investment as the 'One Belt, One Road' initiative picks up. A softer USD has also encouraged strong investment inflows.
- Australian economic indicators were mixed but stronger labour market data and business confidence suggested a degree of resilience in underlying growth. While Q2 inflation was slightly soft we anticipate the impact of higher utility costs will be met with a higher Q3 print.
